Hotel details

It is the hotel of Universitatea Babeş-Bolyai in Cluj-Napoca. The Hotel consists of rooms with bathroom, TV and refrigerator, one or two beds.

For breakfast, there is an additional cost of 15 Ron/approx. 3.5 EUR (included in the rate of the room).

Lodging can be paid at the reception, in LEI and Euro cash or card.

The easiest way of getting from the University Hotel to the conference venue (Kogălniceanu Street, no. 1, the main building of the Babeş- Bolyai University) is by taking the tram and then walking for a short distance.

Take tram 101 (Bucium-> P-ța. Gării) from the station on Plopilor Street, in the direction P-ța. Gării. Get off the tram at the G. Barițiu Station. From there, walk until the first intersection and then go right on Ferdinand Street. Walk until the end of Ferdinand Street (you pass the Museum of Pharmacy). At the end of Ferdinand Street, turn right on Memorandumului Street and walk until the first intersection. Cross the street and walk straight ahead (parallel with the Saint Michael Church) until you reach the next intersection. Then cross the street again and walk straight ahead (on the University Street) until you see an orange building on your left. When you see that building go left and you are on Kogălniceanu Street. Once on Kogălniceanu Street, the orange building (also known as the Echinox Building) is on your right and the University (the conference venue) is on your left.

You can also take a taxi from your hotel, but given the traffic, the route that I have just described might be faster and far more pleasant. In case you really want to take a taxi, you can ask the receptionist in the hotel lobby to call one for you.
